Driving Miss Daisy continue with vital services and support for you and your loved ones in the community

We, (Paul and Tahrim) would like to introduce ourselves as the new service providers for Driving Miss Daisy Keighley. Firstly, we would like to reassure you that we intend to maintain the high-quality service already established by Martin and Sally. There will be no change to your experience with Driving Miss Daisy Keighley, as the existing team of Driving Companions, who you are familiar with will continue to visit and support you in every way possible.

Driving Miss Daisy lend a hand and provide extra care and attention.

Like the previous owners, we are from the local area and have a real sense of duty to serve the people in and around this area. As healthcare professionals, with a combined 20 years of experience in the care sector, we are used to supporting a diverse range of people. We recognise that Driving Miss Daisy represents more than just a transportation organisation, as those providing such services often overlook the needs of you, the client. As you know, Driving Miss Daisy is different and whether supporting you at home, assisting you to appointments or taking a trip out for a cup of tea and a chat, we are more than happy to prioritise your needs as part of a personalised package that suits you. We are looking forward to supporting you further and for future bookings, please feel free to give us a call on 01535 286870.

Learning for Life

Learning throughout our lives can improve self-esteem and increase life-satisfaction.

Choose to learn with a traditional paper based approach or access your materials online with a computer or tablet for an interactive learning environment.. Either way, you will be assigned a tutor to support you every step of the way.

Over the past year, we have helped hundreds of people complete a FREE* Distance Learning course and gain a Level 2 Nationally recognised qualification.

One Learner who took the Behaviour that Challenges in Children course

The reasons for completing each course have been varied; some people have been learning for work, some have been looking to improve their job prospects, some have learnt to support their friends and families whilst others have just wanted to commented, "I thought the course was structured extremely well. The resources provided were excellent. It was very clear and I was easily able to navigate my way through what was required. Everything I needed to know to answer the questions was provided."

keep their minds occupied and pass the time. Our learners are between the ages of 19 - 80+ and come from all parts of the community.

To view our full range of fully funded* Distance Learning courses visit www.tyrotraining.co.uk or email info@tyrotraining.co.uk or call 01756 693 318

(Please mention you read about the Distance Learning Courses in the Worth Valley Mag)

Don't delay, invest your time and attention on your life long learning journey. It is never too late to develop a new skill or broaden your knowledge!

We have over 30 courses to choose from ranging from Mental Health Awareness and Preparing to Work in Adult Social Care through to Team Leading and LGBT Inclusion. Our most popular courses are: Autism, Business Administration, Children and Young Peoples Mental Health, Dementia Care, Equality and Diversity, Nutrition & Health. The latest additions to the course list includes Event Planning, IT User Skills and Principles for Digital Skills in Employment.

Tyro Training is the official commercial training affiliate of Craven College and supports training & learning in West and North Yorkshire.

*Subject to eligibility and funding availability.

Each course takes 6-12 weeks to complete and can be achieved in the comfort of your own home, fitting in with local lockdowns and work or family demands.

Say hello to our new favorite dessert/ snack...Halva! If you have never heard of Halva, it's a middle eastern dessert very popular in Israel, Greece, Turkey, and many other countries. Made with tahini and honey or sugar, it's sweet, nutty and has a crumbly yet soft texture. This 3-ingredient Halva is not only vegan, but it's also refined sugar-free.

Ingredients

- 80g maple syrup
- 140g tahini
- 1 tsp vanilla extract

optional: hand full of roasted pistachios

Method

Lightly grease a small glass baking dish. You can use a silicone muffin pan if you want, the shape doesn't really matter. Place the maple syrup in a medium saucepan and heat over medium heat until it reaches 266°F (130°C). The maple syrup will bubble and some foam will form, this is normal. While the maple syrup is heating, place the tahini, vanilla extract, and pistachios if using in another saucepan and warm over low heat. Tahini must be just warm, not hot.

Once the maple syrup has reached the temperature, turn the heat off and pour the warm tahini into the saucepan. Using a wooden spoon, stir until it starts to thicken and doesn't look shiny anymore. You can use an electric beater if you want but do not beat for too long as it thickens very quickly, about 10 seconds.

Pour immediately into the prepared dish and spread it into an even layer. Let cool at room temperature for at least 3 hours before removing from the dish. You can then cut it into small squares, or make small chunks. Halva will keep stored in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 3 weeks. Enjoy!

If you don't fancy making it yourself Cobbles and Clay in Haworth serves a very fine Halva; a lovely textured and flavourful one that took the proprietor, Jill Ross, months to source. It is worth the trip and we suggest it is paired with a double espresso for a fully loaded afternoon pick me up treat.

BEHIND THE SCENES at the BRONTË PARSONAGE MUSEUM

Have you visited the Brontë Lounge yet? Last summer, we were missing our visitors very much, so we decided to open the Brontë Lounge, a friendly and informal Zoom space where we could talk Brontë with some of the many writers who have been inspired by them.

We were joined by fans from all over the world as well as many of our friends from Yorkshire. Students, academics, writers, all joined us for a special programme of fundraising events.

First up was writer Samantha Ellis whose impassioned quest to find out more about Anne was threaded with her own personal narrative.

Novelist Tracy Chevalier joined us from deep in Thomas Hardy country where she talked about her life-changing year as creative partner for Charlotte's bicentenary. She said, 'Books help me leave my daily life and enter the dream world.'

Anne Brontë's bicentenary year might have been a bit overshadowed but in the Brontë Lounge Anne totally stole the limelight!

Samira Ahmed – our creative partner for 2021 - told us that it was Anne Brontë who gave her the courage to fight her landmark gender pay gap battle.

Patience Agbabi was thoughtful as she read her from exquisite Emily inspired poems and ruminated on the possibility that Emily might have been autistic. Poetry was also part of the fare when UK Poet Laureate Simon Armitage joined us to reflect on Branwell and shared poems from his 2017 Mansions in the Sky collection accompanied by images from the collection that inspired them.

Caryl Phillips zoomed in from the US with a cohort of international post-grad students and talked of his love of Yorkshire and the moors, which for him are bound up with both the Brontës and the moors murderers which conjoined and swirled in The Lost Child.

Sally Wainwright took us on a rollicking gallop across Yorkshire with the Brontës and Anne Lister. She invited us to speculate on the possibility that Emily and Anne might possibly have met and hinted that the next strong woman ripe for the Wainwright treatment might be Charlotte's very own Shirley...!

Since then, we have also welcomed Rowan Coleman (aka Bella Ellis), Sharon Wright and Andrew Michael Hurley. What have we learned from all these events? How many people out there love Branwell, how many readers feel that Anne is the true trailblazer and how many readers and writers continue to be delighted and inspired by the Brontës. And despite the enforced closure of the Parsonage, the whole Brontë community – whether in Bradford or Buenos Aires - can come together in the Brontë Lounge. If you missed all those events, don't worry. The Brontë Lounge is here to stay and our April guest is Moira Buffini, writer, playwright and showrunner. Moira wrote the screenplay for the acclaimed 2011 film of Jane Eyre starring Mia Wasikowska and Michael Fassbender. She'll be joining us on 22 April, just a day after Charlotte's 205th birthday. Why not join us from the comfort of your sofa?

YORKSHIRE LOFT LADDERS

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overriding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
