

Daisy Days

Hark! one night only: 10% discount
 Wednesday, December 8 from 5-9 p.m.
 including LIVE harp music by Fiona Katie Roberts of space has been taken to display accessories for adults and children as well as a wide selection of Cath Kidston bags.

In Daisy Days you will discover a stunning collection of artisan jewellery, a carefully limited and tasteful selection of games, toys, books for children.

The homeware selections include Haworth's own graphic designer, Emma Tucker (Modo) framed personalised posters for children.

You will be pleased to find Avoca accessories that include rain-wear and wellies, beautiful over the knee socks, fingerless gloves and scarves; lovely gifts of such high-quality craftsmanship that they can stand alone as an exceptional unique offering for a Christmas present.

December 8th is a one-time-only event for a holiday evening shopping opportunity in Haworth that will include a festive drink to warm your tummy, and with some savings to please your wallet.

There will be a complimentary gift-wrapping service on the night too! (Save the date, and tell your friends!)

And there's more! Daisy Days is also a boutique florist! Ruth Wild, the creative force and flower power specialist, has over 7 years experience in event floristry and has worked with some of the worlds leading brands creating stunning concepts for product launches and TV productions.

Flowers for weddings, sympathy tributes, special events, and holiday creations are what you can find at Daisy Days. If you are looking for help with planning a party or styling an event...Ruth is the one to consult.

Order your Christmas tree at Daisy Days, in addition to bespoke wreaths, swags and table arrangements for the season. For your convenience, a delivery service is available for a small additional fee.

Jill Ross, (from the adjacent art café Cobbles and Clay) and Ruth Wild, florist extraordinaire, have brought their combined talents into play to create Daisy Days. Jill's savvy eye for quality and her commitment to ethical trading are what make this a pleasing and satisfying shopping experience. The use of British grown flowers that Ruth favours and her sense of colour and balance give her arrangements and flower selections a brilliance of taste and contemporary style.

Left, Jill Ross of Daisy Days (also of Cobbles & Clay)

It is a partnership of a shared vision that makes Daisy Days special. It is also encouraging to see a genuine commitment to ethical, sustainable sourcing in Haworth which is, after all, a Fairtrade village!

Daisy Days
 Open 7 Days
 62 Main Street, Haworth
 01535 644 653
 (left Ruth Wild of Daisy Days)