Ruth Wilkinson and Utun Pribados create unique portraits and nostalgic momentos on Haworth Main Street.

"Dressing up for grown ups" is how one client described the hour spent at Haworth Heritage Portraits one afternoon. You can step back in time, wrap yourself in period costume and imagine yourself living another life. It is escapism at its very best... and then you get a lovely photo that

Choose from country casual to aristocratic costumes and adults.

Ruth Wilkinson and Utun Pribados decided to set up Haworth Heritage Portraits following a visit to the village captures the occasion.

What a brilliant experience! Fancy dressing up as Cathy or Heathcliffe? Or how about one of the Bronte Sisters, or a character from The Railway Children? There are many costumes to choose from for all shapes and sizes; for children earlier in the year that left a lasting impression. "We liked what we saw in Haworth and it seemed a good location for us." Ruth explained.

Utun is the master photographer with a creative eye and Ruth has the flair and vision to bring the whole experience together, including the clothing accessories and setting. There are a variety of scene sets to choose from and Ruth as the "dresser" has a knack for finding the best "look" for her clients.

The studio on Haworth's Main Street is conveniently located for visitors and local people alike.

A Heritage Portrait makes a fabulous present...and gift vouchers are available if you would like your friends or loved ones to enjoy the encounter for themselves.

In addition to the period portraits, Utun and Ruth can undertake more traditional style portraits either in the studio, at your home, or on location in the beautiful surrounding valleys.

Capture your canine or feline friends with a unique pet portrait

Pet portraits are becoming increasingly popular too as the family pets are a cherished extension of the family. The whole experience is surprisingly affordable and equally entertaining and fun. You will create a lasting memory and a cherished portrait.
