

Steam trains... through the heart of Brontë Country
Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

Remember when... summers were hot...
mum's picnics were the best...
sweets were bigger...?

Travel back in Time on the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway.

Britain's last remaining complete heritage branch line runs from Keighley to Oxenhope, along a rich seam of West Yorkshire's rail and cultural heritage.

Travel via Ingrow, with its award-winning Museum of Rail Travel, and Damems, the country's smallest complete station (Ormston in BBC TV's Born & Bred series) to Oakworth, the location for the classic 1970 The Railway Children film. Get off the train and stretch your legs on The Railway Children Walk linking film locations between Oxenhope, Haworth and Oakworth.

Here at the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway there is more to do than at first meets the eye - we're your route to a great day out for all the family...

So much more than just a train ride.

Running with Success POOCH DOG GROOMING

Earl and Helen Glover at Pooch, in their new premises, Old Saw Mill, Hebden Rd.

After 3 years of dog grooming at Haworth Main Street, Helen Glover's Pooch Dog Grooming has moved to the Old Saw Mill on Hebden Road between Haworth and Oxenhope.

As well as easy access and free parking, Helen's unit has been refurbished and customised specifically for dog grooming. There is even a kennel and play area exclusive for Helen's dogs springer spaniel 'Earl' and bichon frise cross patterdale 'Fennel'!

Hollie and Helen give Earl the royal treatment!

Helen now has a trainee
dog groomer
Hollie, working with her in the new grooming
pad. Hollie is really excited to be working at Pooch and is hoping to become a fully qualified dog groomer in the future.

Lots of people in Haworth and Oxenhope know Helen as the county standard runner who is often seen out pounding the streets with her dogs. Earlier this year Helen won the Keighley 10k race and she is hoping to retain her title of the Oxenhope straw race champ in July.

Pooch Dog Grooming is visited by lots of different breeds of dog from Humphrey the very big Russian mountain dog (who weighs more than Helen) to Sibil the tiny toy poodle!

Services range from a bath and dry and nail clip, to a full groom including clipping, stripping or scissoring to breed standard or owner preference.
The waiting list for an appointment is around 3 weeks so it is advisable to plan ahead when booking a Pooch pampering!
