

It's "who you know and what you know" - We all say it don't we?

Whoyano Rural Business Networking connects people and businesses together through organised networking events, training workshops events, exciting seminars and now our online forum.

Our Mission is to enable Rural Business to gain access to other local Business/ National companies through structured creative Networking events, workshops & training seminars. We connect and create platforms for Sustainability within Rural areas, preventing Rural Isolation, keeping Rural business communities alive leaving a legacy for the Future.

Since 2008 'Whoyano Rural Business Networking' events have been key in generating valued business leads in the Worth Valley. It's fantastic to see some exciting projects & partnerships coming together that would have never happened otherwise without Whoyano.

Do you want to be in the know?... with WHOYANO, you can be!

Meetings in 2010 are held within the Worth Valley, on the last Tuesday of the month, using local venues. They have a relaxed social atmosphere, presenting unique platforms enabling you to connect with others and enjoy yourself after a day at work!
