The brass is gleaming at the Golden Fleece in Oakworth ever since the pub was given a new lease of life with the completion of a comprehensive overhaul including painting and decorating, installation of new toilets, and the creation of a spacious beer garden. The charm of the place has been retained and a traditional pub with an olde world feel remains intact.

This month, Landlord and Landlady, Tony and Denise Holmes, (pictured above) are pleased to begin serving home cooked meals and bar snacks from their updated kitchen. (Last year their kitchen received a 4* rating in the district's "Scores on the Doors" cleanliness gauge). Denise has created a lovely dining area that will comfortably seat 20. Special events, funeral teas, and christenings can be catered to suit a variety of needs with a choice of a hot or cold buffet to serve larger numbers.

Also beginning in March, a Pensioners Special will be available on a Wednesday lunch time featuring a 2 course roast dinner. Sunday Dinners will be on the menu and a Daily Specials board will offer variety throughout the week.

Starting March 2nd and then following on every fortnight, Quiz Night will deliver plenty of enjoyment with a free supper provided and cash prizes awarded on the night. Every six weeks live entertainment will be scheduled in the diary. Keep an eye out for posters or a display board which will inform the community of specific event details. Most major sporting fixtures are broadcast via Setanta on a new flat screen television in the main room of the pub. The ever popular Timothy Taylor cask ale remains the guest beer on tap.

Tony and Denise are pleased to welcome customers old and new to the Golden Fleece. Bring the family and enjoy the traditional atmosphere.
