Male Hairdressing

1940's Make Over by Kay Thompson
Natural Beauties and Oodles of Glamour

To achieve the perfect 1940's make up, your foundation and powder must match your skin colour; get a flawless base to begin with. Follow by dotting three areas on the cheek bones with a rosey blusher to form a triangle and blend in an upward motion towards the temple to brighten your cheeks.

For your eyes, shape and define your well groomed brows using a brow pencil or powder; prominent eyebrows are a must but try to avoid a harsh thin penciled look...blend it in to a soft but dark tone and shape. Eye makeup was kept to the minimum with very little shadow. On your eyelids, apply a soft shade that matches your skin tone, and a slightly darker colour can sit in the crease of the eye to give a dramatic look. Apply a black liquid eyeliner on the region where your lashes meet your lash line, ensuring your line is thin, fine and even. Last but not least, for more beautiful lips, true red, tomato red and orange red for lip line and lip stick. After picking your shade exaggerate your top lip by drawing slightly past your natural lip line with pigmented lip liner and apply your bottom lips natural contour.

Nails At Home & Hair by Rebecca
The Nail Bar and Hair Salon
24 Sun Street, Haworth

It was December 2008 when Sarah McGinty set up Nails at Home in Haworth. The salon is a modern space on Sun Street in what looks like a home from the exterior. Inside it is a blend between contemporary business and casual comfort. Creative Nail Academy trained and former Nails Inc. consultant, Sarah, specialises in hand painted nail art and acrylic extensions.

In May, Sarah is joined by Rebecca Newman, the Haworth born hair stylist, who has been working locally for another salon and decided it was time to branch out. Rebecca has over 10 years experience cutting both ladies and gents hair and is a Wella colour specialist using Tigi brand products. She and Sarah look forward to offering a range of hair and nail treatments that will suit a wide range of local residents. They welcome new and established customers alike to the salon; and to celebrate their new venture Sarah and Rebecca would like to invite you to their

Open Evening on May 14th from 5pm. Come and enjoy a glass of wine and light refreshments, take a look for yourself and meet Sarah and Rebecca. There will be an opportunity for you to win a free nail or hair treatment voucher on the night with a complimentary raffle ticket given to each guest.

The salon also has a tanning service; Sarah can create the perfect tone to suit the look you want to achieve...from a sun kissed glow, to a dark, sensual bronze; and coconut scented to boot!
If that isn't already enough, the other enterprising activity that Sarah is involved in is the distribution of the health and beauty product range from Forever Living. She and her partner, Christian, are independent distributors for the aloe vera company. Together they present not only a opportunity to purchase health enhancing aloe vera products but offer a business opportunity for individuals who want to create additional income for themselves. (Phone Sarah for more details.)
