Even though my school days are decades behind me and my children are grown and gone, September still feels collegiate and transitional. That Back to School feeling lingers, beyond the memories of last-minute dashes for school shoes, uniforms and stationery. I was invariably the parent up the night before term started, sewing labels into practically every item of clothing and, armed with a fresh Sharpie, emblazoning the family name on water bottles, lunch boxes, book bags and pencil cases. I went all out. One Back to School tradition I've never quite grown out of is stationery shopping. Even now, I look forward to those September bargains: fresh notebooks, pens, folders and all the little things that make a new beginning feel possible. So, what are your September vibes? For me, it's a month of transition; a chance to reset, get organised and perhaps sneak away now that everyone else's children are back at school. The weather is usually kind, the crowds have thinned and there are often some tempting last-minute holiday bargains to be found. September has always felt like the beginning of something. Perhaps that's why I still love it.

Brian is 68 years old and has macular degeneration. He has always been very independent, but his sight has reached the stage where he needs to ask his wife Alice for help. He is frustrated that he can't make himself a cup of tea, and has to keep asking Alice what the time is.

Sight Airedale's Daily Living Shop stocks products designed to make life with sight loss easier and help people retain their independence.

For Brian, a liquid level indicator has taken the pain out of making tea. This small device hangs on the side of the cup, and as the liquid reaches the top, it beeps and vibrates to let him know when to stop pouring. There are other kitchen aids too, from stick-on dots that mark oven settings to talking scales, microwaves and air fryers.

Telling the time is no longer a problem. Brian's talking clock is cube-shaped, with no face, just a single button on top. Press it once for the time; press again for the date. A wide range of talking clocks and watches is available, some radio-controlled to always keep the right time.

The Daily Living Shop is located at Sight Airedale's Scott Street premises in Keighley. Visits are by appointment only. To make an appointment, please call our helpline on 01535 602354 Monday to Thursday 9.30 am to 12.30 pm.

To keep costs down, we only hold a few items in stock, so most items will need to be ordered.

Who are we?

Our Keighley Denture Expert is
Matthew Varley
(Dip CDT RCS)

Matthew Varley is the partner and Managing Director of My Denture

Clinics, here he works as a Clinical Dental Technician (Dip CDT RCS).

Matt was born and raised in Pudsey, where he met his wife Angela Varley at school. They have 2 sons; Ray and Austin, he hopes one day they will follow him into the dental profession and share in his passion for dentistry.

Within his 23 years of experience, Matt has changed the lives and smiles of many, some of which are during one day implant immediate loading cases, and same day smiles, which he specialises in. The regular accolades received from clients and patients alike are testament to his passion for his work. Matt has a keen eye for detail and endeavours to provide the best care possible. Matthew completed his dental technology qualification at Leeds Dental Institute, he finished first in his class achieving distinctions throughout and was awarded overall best student and the acclaimed technical achievement award.

Matthew Varley started his journey as a Registered Dental Technician (RDT), however after 23 years experience working as a RDT in highly acclaimed laboratories, Matt made the decision in 2018 to set up his own business alongside fellow business partner Joseph O'Reilly.

Matt also returned to university to further his dental knowledge and become a Clinical Dental Technician, receiving the prestigious royal college of surgeons (Dip CDT RCS).

How can we help you?

Technology has moved on massively over the last few years as far as dentures are concerned. The fact is, you don't have to suffer badly designed or ill fitting dentures anymore.

However, replacing your teeth is more than trusting someone with your smile. Your appearance and the way people perceive you is also at stake.

Matt creates dentures which can offer the dual effect of restoring your smile and correcting the proportions of your face.

He can add volume to your lower face and upper lip region to achieve a more natural, youthful look. Everyone is different, so your dentures are influenced by your age, personality and gender to ensure they look perfectly natural. Matt will discuss your individual needs and the best choices available before providing you with the information you require to determine what is right for you.

The smallest alteration can make the biggest change and Matt is committed to providing the highest level of care, quality materials and the latest digital technology to achieve the best results for you.

Matt's ambition is also his craft, creating lifelike smiles through dentures and implant supported prosthesis.

Everybody has the right to smile!

Denture Problems Look no further...

*Would you like to be more confident?
Do you suffer from denture discomfort?
Loose or ill-fitting dentures?
Afraid to smile?*

Braised Lamb - Spanish Style

By Martin Lingard

This recipe is based on a northern Spanish dish called Cordero al Chilindrón. Traditionally it uses the cheapest cuts of lamb, such as neck or scrag end on the bone, which is what I like to use as it has more flavour. If you can get hold of mutton, that's even better and cheaper. If you or your family don't like bones, use 1kg of boneless cubed lamb shoulder instead.

This is meant to be a spicy dish, but if you don't like spicy food, use sweet smoked paprika instead of hot smoked paprika, or a mix of the two.

I like to serve this with crusty bread to mop up the gravy.

Ingredients (serves 4)

- 4 large red peppers (capsicums)
- 1.5 kg lamb or mutton, scrag end or neck, on the bone
- 6 tbsp olive oil
- 1 large Spanish onion, roughly chopped
- 4 large garlic cloves, sliced
- 1 tsp hot or sweet smoked paprika

- 400g tin plum tomatoes
- 250ml dry white wine
- 1 small bunch fresh thyme
- 3 bay leaves
- Salt

1 small bunch flat-leaf parsley, chopped

Method

Put your oven on maximum heat. Once hot, put the peppers on a baking tray and stick them in the oven for half an hour, turning once, so the skin is blistered and burnt. Remove and set aside to cool. Turn the oven down to 120°C.

Take a large frying pan, tip in half the oil, and fry the lamb in batches until well browned, transferring to an ovenproof casserole once done.

Turn the heat to low, add the rest of your oil and chuck in your onions and garlic, stir occasionally and cook until soft. Now add the paprika, stirring to mix well, then add your wine. Turn up the heat slightly until the wine bubbles, then add the tomatoes and stir to mix.

Now return to your peppers, remove the stalks, burnt skin, and seeds, roughly chop the remaining flesh and add to the lamb along with the bay leaves, thyme, and a good pinch of salt.

Finally, pour the tomato mixture from your frying pan over everything in the casserole, give everything a good shake to cover and mix, pop on a lid and bob it in the oven for three to four hours until the meat is very tender.

When cooked, remove from the oven, stir in the parsley, and serve.

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

This month we're getting ready for one of the biggest events in our calendar as the Brontë Women's Writing Festival returns for its sixteenth year! Join us as we celebrate women writers across fiction, non-fiction, poetry and scripts. Whether you're into Gothic novels, historical fiction or folklore, we're putting women's stories at the centre. This year's festival will be opened at a sold-out launch event with the BAFTA award-winning screenwriter and director Sally Wainwright.

2026 marks 10 years since the release of Wainwright's Brontë biopic To Walk Invisible, which tells the Brontë story from 1845 to 1848, showing the sisters journey to publishing success and ending with the tragic death of their brother, Branwell. It first aired in December 2016 and has remained incredibly popular with Brontë fans, with many deeming it one of the most faithful depictions of the famous sisters, and praising the high level of research that went into making it so historically accurate. Haworth locals may remember heading up to Penistone Hill, where the production team built a replica of the Parsonage and the surrounding buildings, exactly as they looked in the 1840s! Many of you who have visited the Brontë Parsonage Museum may have spotted that one of our rooms is not quite like the others. In 2017, to celebrate Branwell Brontë's bicentenary, the Brontë Parsonage Museum worked with the production team from To Walk Invisible to recreate part of the set in the Parsonage itself. Branwell's Studio as you see it today was originally designed for filming at Granada studios in Manchester. Before this, the room housed some of Branwell's manuscripts and portraits, and while the set was only meant to be displayed for Branwell's bicentenary it proved so popular with visitors that the Museum has kept it ever since. If you haven't seen it for yourself, we'd love for you to visit! While we're looking back fondly on To Walk Invisible, we're also looking forward to the upcoming adaptation of Jane Eyre, starring Aimee Lou Wood. Screenwriter and playwright Mirrian Battye, who is working on the adaptation with Working Title, will also be attending the Festival this year to talk all about her experiences adapting Charlotte Brontë's most famous novel.

This year's Festival is shaping up to be a huge success, and we'd love for you to join us! You can find out more about the upcoming Brontë Women's Writing Festival on our website, bronte.org.uk/whats-on.

The company's Managing Director, Paul, has strong local roots. Born at St John's, he attended Parkside School in Cullingworth and spent much of his youth involved with the Keighley Scout movement. YORKSHIRE
LOFT LADDERS

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overriding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
